

Impact of Postal Disruption on Year-End Property Tax and Utility Reminders

Due to the ongoing disruption to Canada Post mail services, the City of Parksville will not be mailing the regular property tax and utility final reminder statements, which serve as a reminder to residents to remit payment of outstanding balances on their property tax and utility accounts. This disruption impacts about 580 utility accounts from a total of 6,000, and 250 property tax accounts from a total of 7,440.

By statutory requirement, any outstanding utility account balances after December 31 will transfer onto the property tax account as arrears taxes. Current taxes become arrears taxes and arrears taxes become delinquent taxes as of January 1 and will incur daily interest.

Please note in future years, the City of Parksville will not mail reminder statements prior to year end. Reminder statements will be sent in July only.
